Location

Gillock is a small rural village midway between Thurso and Wick with both towns less than 20 minutes comfortable drive away, making it ideal for commuting. Thurso, one of the two main towns in the district has shopping, professional, medical and educational facilities. From Thurso there are regular bus and rail services and from Wick airport which is approximately 20 miles south there are regular scheduled air services. The city of Inverness is approximately two and a half-hours' drive.
