39 ROSE STREET, THURSO

Fantastic opportunity to acquire this imposing four bedroom detached town house with expansive garden ground and two garages, one of which incorporates a large workshop area. In an attractive conservation area the property retains many original period features including ornate cornicing, high skirtings, and an attractive staircase. The well-presented property benefits from double glazed windows, gas central heating and a cosy multi fuel stove in the dining room. Accommodation comprises lounge, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, bedroom and bathroom to the ground floor with three spacious double bedrooms to the first floor. Only a short walk to the town centre the property enjoys an elevated position and appreciates lovely views over the Thurso skyline towards the surrounding countryside. Outside is a large and attractive fully enclosed garden with terraced level patio off the kitchen. With areas of lawn and paving there are well stocked flower beds and occasional mature trees, timber shed and greenhouse. This area may also be suitable for further development subject to suitable planning consent. There is also a gated recessed parking area offering additional private parking. Making an excellent family home viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all the property offers.
