Young Robertson & Co.

LABURNUM HOUSE, DUNBEATH

This impressive four-bedroom property, with generous gardens, garage and off-road parking, has served as a substantial family home for many years, and provides large well-proportioned rooms, spread over three levels. Full of character, this home elegantly blends modern comforts with traditional charm, showcasing original internal doors, deep skirting boards, and a striking ornate oak staircase that ascends to a split-level landing. Offering economical running costs, the property features solar panels alongside oil and pellet central heating systems, further complemented by a charming LPG gas log burner in the living room.

The ground floor accommodation includes a spacious and inviting entrance hall, a living room, dining room, drawing room, cloakroom, a modern fitted kitchen/breakfast room, and a utility room. Upstairs, the property boasts four generously sized bedrooms, with the master bedroom featuring a large storage cupboard and an en-suite shower room. The second bedroom benefits from access to a Jack and Jill bathroom shared with the landing. Additionally, there is a further shower room on this level. From the landing, access is provided to a sizeable attic room, offering ample storage space and two separate fully fitted office areas. The stunning landscaped gardens are arranged across three tiers and feature stone steps and pathways for both practicality and visual charm. A gardener's paradise, the grounds are mainly laid to lawn and enriched with mature and fruit-bearing trees. Off the kitchen, an attractive paved patio adds to the charm of the space. Thoughtfully arranged seating areas offer perfect vantage points to unwind and enjoy the scenic views. Ideal for a growing or extended family viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all this property offers.
