Young Robertson & Co.

FRYSTER, CASTLETOWN, THURSO

This traditional four-bedroom cottage is being sold with approximately 7.4 acres of adjoining land along with a substantial stone-built steading, offering excellent potential for conversion into holiday or residential accommodation (subject to the necessary planning permissions). Conveniently situated in a quiet location however within easy reach of both Castletown and Thurso, the cottage enjoys expansive views in all directions. The current layout comprises an entrance porch, hallway, kitchen/diner, living room, four bedrooms, and a bathroom. Externally you can find a small patio area, garden grounds with occasional mature trees, and a generous gated courtyard fronting the steading (all extending to approximately 0.5 acres). The land is fully enclosed and divided into two fields, with further acreage potentially available by separate negotiation. Offering a unique opportunity for those perhaps seeking a lifestyle change in the scenic Caithness countryside viewing is highly recommended.
